

Call for Workshop Presentations

DEADLINE December 2, 2022

Paving the Way to Health Care Access Conference

Virtual

May 19 & 20, 2023

UMass Chan Medical Interpreting program invites you to submit a presentation proposal for its 18th Annual Paving the Way to Health Care Access Conference.

This year's theme is: Broaden Your Horizons – Interpreters Prepared for All Settings

Thinking beyond just the medical encounter and being prepared to interpret for all matters that overlap in the medical encounter, for instance, legal matters, educational concerns, trauma, social service settings, unemployment matters, workers compensation, child and family services.

Proposals for presentations can be in any of the following areas:

- a. Language Access and LEP patients' rights
- b. Medical terminology and healthcare concepts
- c. Interpreting in specific medical specialties
- d. Culturally and linguistically appropriate health care services
- e. Skills needed for and challenges on interpreting in medical setting
- f. Interpreting skills in simultaneous mode
- g. Work benefits or challenges for contract interpreters, freelance, staff interpreters, translators, and bilingual employees
- h. Applications of technology that improve access to care, interpreter training and on-the-job tools for working interpreters
- i. Healthcare interpreting for ASL interpreters
- j. Interpreter health and wellness

In order to keep the cost of the event affordable to interpreters in the field, we will waive your registration fee as an honorarium.

Please complete this form to submit your proposal and send it to Lisa Morris at AHEC@umassmed.edu

Deadline for submission of your proposal to present is December 2, 2022

Supported by MassHealth and the MassAHEC Network, a division of Commonwealth Medicine, UMass Chan Medical School, 333 South Street, Shrewsbury, Massachusetts 01545
